

CoreCivic Appoints Dawn Smith, Stacey Tank, and Nina Tran to Its Board of Directors

March 7, 2025

BRENTWOOD, Tenn., March 07, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- CoreCivic, Inc. (NYSE: CXW) (CoreCivic or the Company) announced today that, effective March 17, 2025, Dawn Smith, Stacey Tank, and Nina Tran will be appointed as independent members of the Company's Board of Directors (the Board), expanding the Board from eleven to fourteen directors, thirteen of whom have been determined by the Board to be independent. CoreCivic's new board members are expected to join various board committees in the future.

Additionally, on March 7, 2025, Robert Dennis notified the Company of his intent not to stand for re-election as a member of the Board at the Company's 2025 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the Annual Meeting). The Company previously announced on February 27, 2025, that Anne L. Mariucci also notified the Company of her intent not to stand for re-election as a member of the Board at the Annual Meeting. Ms. Mariucci and Mr. Dennis will serve their remaining terms and will resign from the Board, including from service on the Board's various committees, at the Annual Meeting. The size of the Board will be reduced to twelve at the Annual Meeting.

"We are excited to have Dawn, Stacey, and Nina join our Board," said Damon Hining, CoreCivic's Chief Executive Officer. "Each brings unique skills and vision to our Board. Dawn has a deep background in corporate law, operational leadership and information technology. Stacey holds executive leadership positions in both commercial and non-profit entities, and has leadership experience at large publicly-traded companies. Nina brings decades of financial and accounting expertise and executive leadership with a focus on real estate."

"We are also extremely grateful for the valuable contributions and long service of our board members, Anne Mariucci and Bob Dennis, who have been on CoreCivic's board for 13 years and 12 years, respectively. We believe the Company truly is better for their counsel through many transformational years, and we wish them well."
